

Georgian half mild wool sheep

This sort of sheep is taken out from crossing Tushuri sheep to Mild wool Rambuli and Prekosi sorts of rams. Then these crossed individuals had been selected and crossed to each other. Due to purposeful selection, new wool-meat direction sort of sheep had been formed. Compatibility of half mild wool to fat tail had been the first successful achievement in the history of sheep-breeding. This sort had been proved in 1949. Georgian half mild wool sheep is characterized by moulting in spring. The average live weight of rams is 70-75 kg. of ewes – 45-50 kg. The average cutting of rams is 4,5-5kg. of ewes – 3-3,5kg. Output of pure wool achieves 60-65%. The length of wool is 12-15sm. mildness composes 50-56 quality. This sort is characterized by good meat peculiarities but it is not fully perfect yet.

Indicators	♀	♂
Live weight, kg.	45-50 (max 60)	70-75 (max 85)
Cutting of wool per sheep	3-3.5	4.5-5
Wool length, cm	10-12	12-15
Output of pure wool,%	60-65	60-65