

Imeruli sheep

Nowadays in Georgia the unique sort of Imeruli sheep is bred. It is characterized by the expensive biological-productive peculiarities, insemination happens at the age of 5-6 months, it's much productive, represents the expensive genetic materials for the creation of the new types or sorts of sheep. It gives the extra class half rough wool and tasty meat. It is shaved 3 times during a year. The weight of the ram is 35-40 kg, the. Cutting of the wool composes 1,8 kg and 1,2kg, productivity 250-300 %.

